

An aerial photograph of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. The city is densely packed with buildings of various heights and colors, situated along the waterfront. The harbor is filled with numerous boats, including large cargo ships and smaller vessels. In the foreground, the Citadel, a large green island with a white lighthouse, is visible. The water is a deep blue, and the sky is clear. The text "CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR SPORT HERITAGE CONFERENCE HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA JUNE 10 - 12, 2015" is overlaid in the top right corner.

The national conference for The Canadian Association for Sport Heritage (CASH) is scheduled for June 10 -12 in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Representatives from across Canada and the United States will be attending and participating in numerous workshops and seminars on a variety of topics related to sport heritage and to the operations and management of sport heritage and Hall of Fame facilities. The Nova Scotia Sport Hall of Fame is the official host of the CASH Conference and coordinator of special events and entertainment. The “City by the Sea” will provide a great experience for everyone attending.

The Sport Heritage business in Canada is a multi-million dollar operation, and this year’s conference is a great opportunity for suppliers and sponsors to become engaged. The conference provides sponsorship opportunities in several categories.
